There are no translations available.

Scientific advice for the development of oceanic fishery management measures

- Objective
- Strategy

Objective

The objective of this component is to ensure that the fisheries management measures agreed by membe

Strategy

The FFA member countries are the key players in the management of the region's tuna fisheries. About

- The resources are shared, and are followed by very mobile fishing fleets, so there is a need to coo
- The fleets of distant-water fishing nations operate in most zones, and can 'play one country off aga
- The FFA countries form a strong bloc in the Western Central Pacific Fisheries Commission (WCP

After many years in which tuna catches have grown steadily in equatorial waters, overfishing is now con

The other sub-group - the Sub-committee on Southern Tuna and Billfish Fisheries (SC-STBF) - compris

SPC has endeavoured to provide scientific advice to these groups for some years, but the volume of wo

- back to the top -

For more information, please contact Graham Pilling Fisheries Scientist (FFA Support), Stock Assessment

This Program is funded by the Australian aid program

Outputs related to the project

Meetings during which the project was presented

- WCPFC Management Objectives Workshop, Manila, Philippines, Noven
  Link

- WCPFC Management Objectives Workshop 2, Cairns, Australia, Novem
  Link

News

- A scientific perspective on current challenges for PICT domestic tuna lo
  Link

[1] The majority of outputs from this project component are designed to be delivered directly to SPC members. They are therefore confidential and cannot be displayed here.